

Parents and Children Code of Conduct

Parents and Carers

Thanks for encouraging your child to enjoy Triathlon. As the representatives for Triathlon England within Cadence Tri we have a duty of care towards your child and in return we ask a few things from them and from you, namely:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexuality
- Encourage your child to learn the rules and stick to them
- Discourage unfair play and arguing with officials
- Recognise good performances, not just results
- Never force your child to take part in sport
- Never punish or belittle anyone for losing or making mistakes
- Publicly accept coaches/officials' judgements. Concerns can always be raised after a training session/event.
- Support your child's involvement & help them to enjoy Triathlon
- Use correct and proper language at all times.

Children

You should:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexuality
- Train and compete within the rules and respect coaches/officials and their decisions
- Be polite and respect other clubmates, coaches, competitors and those helping you to achieve your triathlon dream
- Listen to what coaches, officials and event marshals ask you to do
- Be on time for your training/race
- Have some input to the training that you do and the competitions that you take part in
